Life is ruled by HIGHS and LOWS

This is Samsara

Calm? Equanimity?
Stasis?

This is False Nirvana.
It's a negotiated "peace"
within Samsara.

This is true Nirvana.
Highs and Lows are not differentiated.
You simply observe the actions
And activities of the life of the cosmos.
Buddhahood remains compassionate but Unaffected, desiring only enlightenment for all,
ALL of life, from exploding Super Novas to Lotus blossoms, Are simply the vast range of the one experience of the potential that is the Engine of Life.
